

Hotel Hankyu Expo Park

Back in 1970, the Japan World Exposition (EXPO '70) sent a wave of excitement through the entire country. The Hotel Hankyu Expo Park, as an urban resort hotel situated on the Expo Park, the site where the event was held, it is home to various sightseeing spots including the Park's Japanese Garden and the National Museum of Ethnology. Hotel guest rooms face such sights as the Tower of the Sun and Osaka City. There is also an indoor pool lit up by dazzling sunlight, a natural hot spring and sauna, a bedrock bath, a fitness club, and more, all to help you relax and enjoy your stay. The hotel is also conveniently located just two minutes from the Suita I.C. Come to our hotel for a quiet moment in nature away from the hustle and bustle of the city.
