

Information for Participants

Abstract Number

The abstract number consists of three parts as S-DYXXhhmm for oral presentations. S denotes the type of presentation (P: Plenary, I: Invited O: Oral). DY denotes the date in two figures and XX is two-letter abbreviation of the names of the session. The abstract number of poster presentation is denoted as PSDYXX-n. DY and XX are same abbreviation as oral. n is the number in the session.

Oral Presentation

Time allotted for presentation is 30 min for invited talk and 20 min for contributed oral paper. They include 5 min for discussion. That for plenary lecture and the Rossini Award lecture is 50 min including approximately 10 min discussion time. The IACT junior award talks are given in the oral session. The remaining presentation time is displayed for the speakers. In order to keep the program on time, the speakers are asked to finish the presentation strictly within the allotted time.

All presentations are done using PC and projector with HDMI input. If you use VGA type connection, please prepare appropriate adapters by the speakers.

Presentation Time

Plenary and Rossini Award Presentation	50 min (40 min and 10 min discussion)
Invited Presentation	30 min (25 min and 5 min discussion)
Contributed Oral Presentation (including IACT Junior Award)	20 min (15 min and 5 min discussion)

Remote presentations

For oral presenters who cannot attend on-site, on-line presentations are possible by using zoom as a supporting tool. Please access the zoom room from the link in the web site before the starting time of the session and check your camera and microphone with conference staff.

Poster Presentation

All posters should be mounted on the designated board during the break time in the morning and the lunch break time of July 31st and August 3rd. The poster is to be left over the night for further display/discussion and removed within the next day. Posters left after the removal time will be discarded by the organizer.

The size of the poster board is 900mm(width) × 2100mm(height). Pins and tapes to attach posters are prepared by the conference side.

IACT Business Meeting

IACT (International Association for Chemical Thermodynamics) business meeting is held in the morning of August 2nd from AM 8:15 to 9:00, in the Room A. The meeting contains some presentations of activities of IACT and usual business matters. All participants of ICCT-2023 can attend the meeting.
